NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a rocky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STAY, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURance Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs. Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing m y thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and thirty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, call while in health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $20 000. Delays are often fatal.

Horses Stolen—$25 Reward.

TWO GOOD HORSES were stolen from my Stables, on Thursday night last. One of them was a Sorrel Gelding, about 7 years old, with a scar on right shoulder recently cured up, and his left eye is bad. The other horse is a Chestnut Sorrel gelding, bald face, with the film of the left eye white, two white hind feet, and with one white fore foot; about 9 or 10 years old. I will give the above reward for their delivery to me, eight miles North of Raleigh. I will also give $25 for evidence to convict the thief or thieves, or will pay liberally for information, so that I can get them.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

AN INFAMOUS DOCUMENT!

A pocket-book, containing a sum of money and a most atrocious document, which the Journal of Commerce publishes in full, was picked up by a gentleman on the streets of Newbern, on Tuesday. It is a communication addressed by the Grand Secretary of the Loyal League to the leading "Brethren" in the South, dated Washington, Aug. 24th. We have never conceived of anything so diabolical and villainous as its whole tenor, and it throws additional light upon the dark and horrible designs of this infamous organization and infamous party. Let the owner of the pocket-book call for his money! Who claims it?

This horrible document advises:

Firstly. You must hold tri weekly meetings of your league, and as much oftener as the interests of the party and the excitement of the negroes will admit. During the sessions tell them of some outrage, (imaginary, if necessary,) as having been committed against their race by the Conservatives, and in strong terms denounce the guilty perpetrators. Then swear them to secrecy, and by your usual methods make an impression on their feeble minds, and convince them of your plan to place them in power, and make them the masters of the South, &c. Deplore their present position and argue with them that it is THEIR FAULT ALONE they do not possess the farms.

How faithfully the counsel of this paragraph has been carried out, is too fatally apparent. The guilty scoundrels who give it, and the guilty scoundrels who act upon it, have indeed wrought upon the "feeble minds" of their dupes by lies of the first magnitude. It was in the spirit of just such incendiary advice that the infamous Legislative address was issued, advising the negroes, indirectly, to burn, slay and steal, if necessary, in order to retaliate upon the "rebels,"—by which term was meant nine-tenths of the white men of the South. The authors of that address did not dare to come out, in so many words, and say publicly to the blacks that it would be "their fault alone, if they did not possess the farms." But they knew, doubtless, of the existence of this secret circular, and that the allusion would be understood.

Secondly. Drill them like soldiers, and be prepared for any emergency. Control the negroes like slaves. Keep them in alarm and excitement all the time, and have one a spy upon another.

Caution the backsliders of the vengeance of the U. L. & C. G., and by intimidation and the love of power and freedom, threaten them with evil. Should indifference or apathy exist among them, you must then appeal to their ignorance, charging the Democracy with a scheme to re-enslave them, and, in failing to do this, they propose to kidnap them as soon as Seymour and Blair are elected and sell them in Cuba and Brazil.

They have been, and are being, drilled like soldiers, and controlled like slaves.—Their slavery of the will, to-day, to design ing and unscrupulous villains, is infinitely worse than any former slavery of the body. Few of the negroes, except, here and there, some one of the city and bought-up leaders of their own color, have been permitted, of course, to see this document. We tell them that its genuineness has been vouched for and can be verified, and if they are not utterly steeped in a bestial stupidity, they may now see how it is proposed to use their credulity, and play upon their "feeble minds," for the vilest and most unhallowed purposes. See how, further, it is sought to deceive the negro:

Thirdly. You must promise them farms, mules and bread for voting for Grant and Colfax, and assure them that they would have been supplied with them long since, had not Andrew Johnson and the Democracy interfered. They are credulous enough to believe this, and by such assurances you can work to a good advantage.

Fourthly. Promise them the majority of all the offices as soon as Grant and Colfax are elected, stating in excuse for inquiry (delay!) that their Northern and Southern friends demand them at present, but they shall have their choice after election. You can calm their excited demands with this, and when once in power, we can act as we please.

The old cry: "Forty acres and a mule!" Have not the negroes been promised these, for the last two years, and has any one of them ever got either? How many of them have ever got a paying office, at the hands of their "friends?" True, one or two of them, like Jim Harris, have received large sums of money for yielding their claims to office, but this is all, and such characters are parties to the plan for deceiving the great mass of the colored people. Instead of getting office, after the election of Grant and Colfax, has it not been charged, and not denied, that "Gov." Holden, B. J. Howse and J. M. Turner, leading Radicals, have pronounced in favor of "colonizing" them in Africa, or somewhere else, "after the election?"

Fifthly. Prejudice their minds against the fact that the native Southerners are their friends, and poison every friendly relation existing between the two races, and state that they only allow them to work their farms for profit, and the fear that the Republican party would confiscate them, and give them to the negroes. Impress upon their minds that the lands rightly belong to them; exhort them, however, not to attempt to possess them, at present, but never allow them to lose sight of their imaginary and assumed ownership. Denounce the Conservatives, and convince them that it is this power alone that is keeping them out of possession. They are avaricious and stupid enough to credit this.

Sixthly. You must abuse the Democracy by calling them "Copperheads," "Rebels," "Secessionists," "Traitors," "Slave holders," &c., and educate the negroes to do the same, and rather than arrest any ill feeling, irritate it, and unite the negroes on the side of their race. You can thus be instrumental in provoking a riot, and we will make the most of it in the campaign. A riot now, such as was inaugurated in New Orleans and Memphis, is what we want and need. Should you find the negroes, after argument, disposed to be peaceful, advise the Secretary in time, and orators from the North will be sent you, who are well qualified for the business and can render you valuable assistance in your work.

Seventhly. At every Democratic meeting, deploy your men about, and disturb it as much as possible. If riot ensues, at once charge it upon the Conservatives, and telegraph the U. L. & C. G. at once, as we may have the first news published in our favor.

All of this advice has been carried out to the letter, by the supple and debased tools to whom it has been addressed. They have sought every opportunity to provoke riot and bloodshed, as an instrument of party capital. Failing, in North Carolina, in every other effort,—on account of the determination of our law-abiding and peaceful people to avoid popular disturbance, for any cause short of self-defence,—these miscreants sought surely to provoke it by offering an atrocious and dastardly indignity to the women of the State,—our mothers, wives, daughters and sisters. And still our people, even in view of this last crowning outrage, have forborne, because they knew that "a riot" was what these men wanted "and needed," and they were willing to bear a wound to their tenderest affections rather than prejudice the great cause of civil liberty in which we are engaged.

Men of North Carolina, white and black! Read the foregoing, and reflect upon the damnable and horrible spirit which prompted it. As the Journal of Commerce says, all the villainy, arson, riot and murder, that have occurred in the South, within the past sixty days, are directly traceable to this hellish instrument, and its authors and abettors are guilty, in the sight of God and man, of these foul crimes! Let them be held to a rigid accountability!

"Let us have Peace," say Grant and his followers. Fellow-citizens, you see what is meant by their Peace!!!

WHY WE CLAIM NORTH CAROLINA.

We have stated, repeatedly, that it was within the power of the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina to carry the State for Seymour and Blair in November, easily and triumphantly. We have, therefore, claimed North Carolina for them, with some certainty, maugre all the efforts of the Radicals, aided by the State officiary, to prevent a fair election. We have said this, upon the supposition, that the Radicals could hardly exceed the efforts at unfairness and illegality, which they made at the last election, under Gen. Canby's ruling.

We proceed to show the ground of our belief as to our success in November. Under the registration and vote on the new Constitution, the whole vote registered was 196,873. Of these, according to Gen. Canby, 93,084 voted for the Constitution, and 74,015 voted against it, leaving 29,774 registered persons who did not vote. In that election, Gen. Canby made no distinction between the white and colored registration or vote. The first registration showed 178,665 registered voters, 105,349 of whom were whites, and 73,316 colored. Of these, about 70,000 colored and 23,000 whites voted for the Convention. The last registration for the election on the Constitution showed an increase of registered voters of 18,208, the whole being 196,873. Of these, we judge, 78,000 were colored registered voters, and 118,873 white voters. The present registration will add at least 15,000 more white voters in the State. It will be seen, therefore, that, allowing over one colored voter for every two white voters, which is nearly the ratio of the population, if there are only 133,873 white voters, there cannot be 78,000 colored votes in the State, but we allow that number in the calculation. We have, therefore, in the aggregate, 211,873 voters in the State, and an excess of white voters over the colored of 55,873. It is larger than this, but we put the white majority at this. In the late election for the Constitution, the vote stood thus:

For the Constitution,	93,084
Against the Constitution,	74,015
Majority,	19,069

Now, we feel confident that the vote for Grant cannot equal the vote for the Constitution by 10,000. Thousands who voted for the Constitution were not Radicals and will not vote for Grant. Besides this, 15,000, at least, of white voters will vote for Seymour and Blair, who did not vote at all in the last election. We conclude, therefore, that the result will be about as follows:

Those who voted against the Constitution before will vote Against Grant, say		74,015
Of those who voted for the Constitution,	10,000
Of those who did not vote,	15,000
		99,015
We give to Gen. Grant colored votes,	70,000
Of whites who voted for Constitution,	15,000
Additional whites not voting,	5,000	90,000
Democratic majority,		9,015

With a full and fair vote, allowing for sickness, absence, &c., it will not exceed, if it reaches, 200,000. Of these Grant cannot get over 90,000. This would give us a Democratic majority of 20,000, which is about the real state of the vote, if polled.

These are our reasons for believing that we shall carry the State by about 9,000, leaving a wide margin for frauds, &c., and assuming a smaller vote than 200,000. Let every voter be at the polls, and let every Democrat and Conservative work, WORK, WORK, till the votes are counted out!

THE GROUND OF OUR HOPE—ELECTION RETURNS.

We have indicated, by our remarks, heretofore, that we have the strongest hopes of the election of Seymour and Blair, on the 3d of November. This hope is chiefly based upon carrying New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana in the Presidential election, and upon the conviction that a large majority of the people of the United States still love the Constitution and the Union, and are not yet ready to part with constitutional liberty. Whatever may be their admiration of Gen. Grant's military talents and success, they cannot believe in his fitness for the Presidential office. His temper, his general habits and character, have not been such as to make the people love him, as they did Gen. Harrison and Zachary Taylor. It is simply the admiration of success, such as was felt for Gen. Scott. Nor are we willing to believe that the Northern people can approve of or endorse the Radical reconstruction policy, or the Radical despotism, as shown in its conduct towards the Southern people, and towards the President and the Supreme Court. Hence we look for widely different results in Pennsylvania and Indiana, in November, from those of the October election.

Besides this, the elections in the Northern States have shown large and steady gains to the Democratic party, ever since the last Presidential election. Moreover, the evidences are now palpable, that Radical frauds and money, which cannot be so easily repeated in the November elections, account for the temporary success of the Radicals in the local and State elections, where other issues, besides those of a National character and the popularity of Grant, prevailed.

The election returns, as forwarded by the Northern Associated Press Agents, have been shown to be partial and incorrect, always leaning to the Radical side, and making false impressions. The private arrangements of the New York World have been far more reliable, giving very nearly the official vote, the day after the election. Notice the following example of the late elections in Connecticut, Vermont, Maine and Pennsylvania. The official vote of Maine and Pennsylvania is not fully accurate. The real Republican majority in those two States falls below the official returns given below. The vote in Connecticut shows the Democratic majority:

	World.	Official.
Connecticut	1 648	1 764
Vermont	26,460	27,236
Maine	19,477	19,960
Pennsylvania	10 619	10,102

We give majorities of each party below, as shown by the Presidential election in 1864, and the elections for Governor in 1866, in the following States:

		Rad. maj.	Dem. maj
New York	1864	6,730
"	1866	10 749
Connecticut	1864	2,406
"	1866	541
Ohio	1864	59 586
"	1865	29 936
"	1867	2 983
Pennsylvania	1864	19,974
"	1866	17,178
Indiana	1864	20,189
"	1866	14,516

It will be seen that the gains of the Democracy have been steady and onward. The official majorities in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have not been fully ascertained, in the October elections, but they may be put down, in round numbers, at 10,000 in Pennsylvania, against 17,178, in 1866,—the election for Judge in 1867 not being a test; in Ohio, at 15,000, against 29,936 in 1865,—the election in 1867 not being a test, because of the unpopularity of negro suffrage, which reduced the Radical majority to only 2,983; and in Indiana at about 1,000, against 14,516 in 1866.

Now, when we come to take into account the fact, that immense Radical frauds have been discovered by the Democrats in the October elections, and that the most active measures will be employed to prevent their repetition in November, it is not unreasonable to hope that, with the increased ardor and hope inspired in the Democratic and Conservative masses, since the discovery of these frauds and their real strength, the Democracy will triumph in at least Pennsylvania and Indiana, and thus elect SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.

It is charged by the Democrats, that 5,000 persons were imported from New York to vote in the Pennsylvania election, and that many thousands of bona fide legal votes of recently naturalized citizens were thrown out in the State, showing how easy a matter it is for the old and new Democracy of that State to succeed in November, if they will. This they seem determined to do. Large importations of voters are charged against the Radicals both in Ohio and Indiana. Mr. Hendricks is so well assured of his election in Indiana, that it is said he will contest the election.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, (dem.,) speaking of the prospects of the Democracy in Ohio, shows that that State, even, is not sure for Grant. It says, "if the Democracy will make a vigorous rally in November, they can give Seymour and Blair a larger vote than the Republicans polled at the State election, and that will secure the State."—The Cincinnati Gazette, (rad.,) is by no means assured of Grant's success. It says:

"They who talk of the victory being won, and of the Democratic party as being routed and panic stricken, are simply indulging in the puerile policy of trying to make a victory out of an indecisive contest by the force of crowing. The preliminary firing has only developed the positions of the two armies; the great battle is yet to be fought. They who exult in the cry that the enemy are panic stricken are foolishly leading our own soldiers to throw down their arms and relax their organization."

The facts all around prove, that Gen. Grant is not stronger with the people than the local and State candidates. Nay, it is evident he is not so strong.

For the foregoing reasons, we are very hopeful, in spite of the mishaps which have befallen the Democracy, that the Constitution and the Republic are still safe, and that the election of SEYMOUR AND BLAIR, if not among the certainties, (and no man can be certain of what is future,) is, at least, among the strong probabilities.—Let the Democrats and Conservatives stand TO THEIR COLORS, AND WORK TO THE LATEST HOUR FOR SUCCESS!

RUMOR.—It is rumored that orders have been issued from the "Union Leagues" for their members to go to the polls, on Tuesday next, armed with Bludgeons. We give the rumor for what it is worth. It is in keeping with the atrocious advice given to the negroes in the secret circular elsewhere referred to, in this day's paper. If true, the fact cannot be too seriously deprecated, as tending to produce violence and disorder. The Democrats and Conservatives desire that every man shall have untrammeled liberty to vote, without menace, without being impeded or crowded at the polls, and in order and quiet. They intend to vote themselves, in spite of all odds, of whatever character or description. And it is as well that this shall be known, at once. They will avoid anything like disturbance, unless pressed, but vote THEY WILL!

ANOTHER RUMOR.—That U. S. Officers, sojourning here, (among them Chaplain G. W. Pepper,) have registered, with a view to voting. We are not familiar with such matters, but we raise the question whether there is not something in the Army Regulations, or Acts of Congress, prohibitory of this, unless the Officer or soldier has his residence or family in the county where he proposes to vote? If these Officers or soldiers were at home, in Ohio, New York, or elsewhere, would they not claim the right to vote there? If so, it is clear that they have no right to vote here.

GOV. SEYMOUR'S progress continues to be one grand ovation. The people flock to hear his words of wise statesmanship and to see him, by tens of thousands, and intense enthusiasm surrounds him everywhere. He is rallying the clansmen to the front with the voice of "inspired" patriotism. He has now spoken at more than twenty different places in New York, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and proceeds to Pennsylvania.

For the Sentinel.

Rockingham Alive—Glorious Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Leaksville.

LEAKSVILLE, Oct. 25, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—It would have made your hearts glad to have been with us on yesterday. The results of the late Northern elections seem not to have discouraged, but to have vivified, our people. Handbills had given notice, that a good corps of speakers would be on hand, and arrangements for a Barbecue were made, and, as it turned out, most successfully made. Let me repeat, what the managers remarked, that this was "a poor man's barbecue."—True, some of the rich took a laudable part, but the poor, generally, sent in according to their ability.

The Radicals have gone far in classing the poor with the negro, and this was an uprising of feeling against their theory that, because a man is poor, he must be herded with ignorant negroes. The air was bracing, the sky cloudless, and at an early hour men, women and children began to come in; and competent judges estimate that some two thousand persons thronged the streets of Leaksville—more, our old citizens say, than were ever in Leaksville before at one time. The Marshal, Dr. A. B. Johns, Jr., with his Assistant, T. W. Field, formed a large procession, which marched down the streets, up to the stand, eager to hear.

Jno. H. Dillard, Esq., in a few happy remarks, introduced D. F. Caldwell, Esq., of Guilford. This gentleman's earnestness; his knowledge of the teachings of the history of other countries and other times; his former displays of moral courage and his life long Union sentiments, with his forcible arguments, combined to produce a most excellent effect on the audience.

He showed that Gen. Grant, in joining the Radicals, acted the part of Pilate, in condemning our Savior. Gen. G. has publicly and privately examined the condition of the Southern people and reported that he found nothing to condemn in them, and then turns round and joins those who cry for our blood! He asserted that he and Mr. Gorrell received letters, before Grant was taken up by the Radicals, informing them that the Bondholders, in London, would contrive to run him. He is the candidate of the Bondholding aristocracy, who would see the country and people destroyed to save their bonds. He was peculiarly forcible in showing that the Radicals, up to Lincoln's nomination, had been for secession. Now they wish to persecute us for it. After the war, he said, President Johnson offered to admit the State, if the Convention would repeal the ordinance of secession, repudiate the Confederate debt and free the negroes. All this was done. But when Congress met, they saw that the Radical party would die under this programme—hence, the Howard amendment. The Southern people, with righteous indignation, spurned to disgrace themselves by degrading below the negroes the very men their judgments had called to places of trust and honor. Mr. C's. invective is original. He said that it could hardly be conceived "how much raw devil there was in the Radical party."

Dr. Keen's speech was, if possible, better received than Mr. C's. He dwelt less in history and went straight to the heart. He had the advantage of being at his old home. His thrusts were in every direction, but so well aimed that few missed of going home.

After his speech, the ladies, of whom there were many beautiful and intelligent, the speakers, the white men, and Conservative blacks, were conducted to their appropriate tables of beef, mutton, fowls, cakes, &c. None left hungry, for many "baskets" of provisions were over.

It was now late, but the crowd resumed their seats to hear the well-timed speech of our Elector, M. S. Robins, Esq. This is a gallant standard bearer. It would do my heart good for Seymour and Blair to be elected, on his account. He is so faithful and so earnest. He knows the Rads have sinned. He exposes the sin and points out all the individual sinners. His reasons for believing that Seymour and Blair will be elected are well-founded, but I can not follow him in his telling speech. It was remarkable that, in all these long speeches, there was no repetition—the three seemed parts of one long speech.

I must not forget the music, which was sweet and was the spice of the occasion.

The Rads carried this precinct by a large majority at the last election, but you will now hear a different tale. Some days ago, Ruffin led off with a barbecue, Madison followed, and now Leaksville, and some others—ending with Wentworth the day before the election. Look out for

ROCKINGHAM.

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

MASS MEETING AT TARBORO'.—Last Saturday was a gala day for the Democracy of Edgecombe. Several thousand people were assembled from that and the adjoining counties, on occasion of the great Mass Meeting in Tarboro. When the procession was formed, innumerable guidons and banners, bearing patriotic mottoes, waved from one end of the line to the other. Several colored Clubs, with full ranks, took part in the exercises. Hon. Geo. Howard was President of the meeting, and himself, Col. Thos. Kenan, Maj. Jno. Hughes, and Hon. Josiah Turner were the speakers,—all of whom acquitted themselves to the great gratification of the people. The Barbecue was most bountiful. At night there was a grand torchlight procession, and speeches were made by Col. W. A. Jenkins, Maj. W. F. Green, of Franklin, Maj. Dunham, Hon. Asa Biggs, and Maj. Engelhard, of the Journal. The ladies, as usual,—Heaven bless them!—were out in numbers.

THE Radicals managed to elect their candidate for Congress in Colorado, by a majority of seventeen, by throwing out the vote of one precinct which gives nearly two hundred Democratic majority. The same trick has been resorted to in Covode's district, in Pennsylvania. The verdict at the ballot-box is of no account to the Radicals, when it is opposed to their lease of power.

THE RADICAL majority in Ohio, at the late election, on the Congressional ticket, was only 4,740. In 1866, the majority was over 41,000,—a gain of nearly 37,000 in two years!

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium, for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—The first Buckwheat of the Season, Golden Syrup and Prime Cheese: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

REGISTRATION.—Registration in this City up to noon, on yesterday, amounted to 1930, —divided about as follows:

Whites,	700
Blacks,	1,230
	1,930.

This is doing very well. But more white votes are yet to be registered. Come up, to day, friends. The white man who can register, and does not, is recreant to every obligation which he owes to his country.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.—We are indebted to the Publisher, Wm. H. Bernard, Esq., Wilmington, for the initial number of this new monthly publication. It promises well. Gotten up in a very handsome style of typography, filled with judicious and practical selections and other valuable matter, it commends itself to our North Carolina farmers. Let them patronize it. It is published at the low rate of $2 per annum.

DEATH OF HON. DAVID OUTLAW.—We regret to learn that the Hon. David Outlaw departed this life, at his residence in Windsor, on last Thursday. Col. Outlaw was a man of mark, had filled many distinguished positions, and was universally esteemed. We hope that some one will do justice to his memory, through our columns.

DAVID C. CARRINGTON, Esq., one of the most enterprising merchants of Goldsboro, died in that place on Friday.

L. C. DESMOND, Esq., a highly respectable citizen of Kinston, died on Saturday. He was one of the most useful and influential gentlemen in the county.

REV. DR. R. S. MASON.—A writer in the New York Herald gives "pen and ink sketches" of the leading members, clerical and lay, of the Triennial Convention of the P. E. Church of the United States, which has just adjourned in that City. After speaking of Dr. Milo Mahan, of Maryland, as the most learned divine in the House of Deputies, it refers, in the following just and complimentary terms, to the Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, in this City:

"Next to him, in learning and acquirements, may be ranked Rev. Dr. Richard S. Mason, of North Carolina. Greek and Latin he has complete control of, and as Chairman of the Committee on the Book of Common Prayer, he, in his suggestions for changes, riddled the venerable standard edition, on account of its bad grammar and bad translations. Being a master of Church History, he always rises to correct any erroneous assertions by other members, and from the remotest antiquity to the present day occurrences, as well as dates, are always at his command. He looks thoroughly the bookworm, and were it not for his white cravat, in the streets of Hildelberg or Jena or Leipsic, he would by all be taken for a learned professor of the University."

REGISTRATION in Wilmington, up to Tuesday, footed up: Whites 734; Blacks 1,898. The Star says that, taking only the last registration, (and many whites can now register, who were then disfranchised,) 551 whites are yet to register. This exhibits criminal remissness. We trust that our friends in Wilmington will wake up, within the few remaining days, from this inexcusable indifference.

THE FRUITS OF LOYALTY, AS ANNOUNCED BY THE "STANDARD."—In the issue of that paper, of the 24th instant, the public are informed, "that the State is now in loyal hands, and that indictments found in opposition to the opinion of the Attorney General and the Governor would not hurt much."

GREAT MASS Meeting in Alamance, today.

THE CORRUPTION PURSE DRAINED.—The New York Sun (Radical) has the following editorial confession:

"It begins to look as if the Democrats would carry New Jersey. The Jersey Republicans in their alarm have been to the National Committee for money. They have told them that their purse has been drained to save the three great central States; and that they must go home and bleed their millionaire candidate for Governor."

BE AT THE REGISTRATION! Let no improper person register. Challenge improper persons at the registration!

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Auburn!

FIFTEEN HUNDRED PRESENT!

The Mass Meeting and Barbecue, at Springfield, near Auburn, on Tuesday, was a glorious affair,—far exceding even the most sanguine anticipations of the gallant and earnest men of that neighborhood, who had spared neither labor nor expense to make it a success. About fifteen hundred people were in attendance, including at least four hundred ladies, who wore their sweetest smiles on the occasion and lent a delightful interest to the scene. Their graceful and patriotic handiwork could be seen in most of the arrangements of the day, and especially in the handsome decoration of the Speakers' stand.

By eleven o'clock, a very large crowd had assembled, but it was soon after swelled to the number estimated, and its enthusiasm increased, by the arrival, in succession, of three mounted Clubs, from adjoining neighborhoods. First came the Club from Walter Moore's place, in Johnston, composed of as true men as were ever engaged in a good cause. They were handsomely welcomed by Col. Geo. H. Faribault, who was very appropriately replied to by Jno. L. Banks, Esq. Next came the Panther Branch Club in dashing style, with flags, sashes and badges. J. F. Johns, Esq., received this Club in a neat speech of welcome, and Dr. A. E. Smith returned acknowledgments in a glowing and patriotic speech. Finally, the Eagle Rock delegation,—consisting of a long cavalcade of mounted men, and a number of gaily-decorated carriages, full of charming ladies,—arrived, and was received, in a very neat speech, by Mr. Camden Pool, to which Capt. J. J. Fray eloquently replied. Meanwhile, and throughout the exercises of the day, the Auburn Band, composed of young gentlemen of the neighborhood, discoursed most excellent music.

The first speaker was Col. R. H. Cowan, of Wilmington, who was introduced to the large audience by Mr. Johns, the efficient Marshal of the day. Col. Cowan's speech was about an hour and a half in length, and was listened to with riveted attention. It has rarely been our fortune to hear a more lucid and commanding effort, interspersed with slashing satire and humor and withering invective,—and delivered, as it was, with all that eloquence of manner for which the orator is so pre-eminently distinguished, it produced the finest effect. In the name of the people of Auburn, we are requested to thank Col. Cowan for the great gratification he afforded them.

Seaton Gales, Esq., Associate Editor of this paper, was next presented to the audience, and addressed them in words of encouragement and good cheer.

After which, dinner was announced, and the people proceeded to pay their devoirs to the generous bounty which our friends had provided. Separate tables were arranged for ladies and their escorts, and for the men,—and all of them, eight in number, literally groaned beneath the weight of profusion. There was abundance of that which was good, and to spare. The negroes present were invited to the tables, after the white people were through, and also allowed to take most of the surplus away with them.

The crowd again repaired to the stand, when Col. Wharton J. Green, our candidate for Elector, being introduced, addressed the people, for upwards of an hour, in an effort of fine ability, bristling with effective points and glowing, frequently, with touches of genuine eloquence. Col. Green made a most favorable impression, and the people expressed their appreciation of his speech by frequent plaudits.

Hon. D. G. Fowle next addressed the crowd, in one of the happiest speeches, for just such an occasion and for the closing hour of a meeting, that we have ever heard. He aroused the people, by his fervid appeals, to the highest pitch of enthusiasm,—proving, at each stage of his remarks, how successfully he can sway the feelings of an audience, when he is "in the vein." At the conclusion of his speech, three rousing cheers were given for Seymour and Blair.

Stephen Rand, colored, being next called out, made a sensible speech, with some good hits at scallawags and carpet baggers, and gave his own race excellent advice, which they would do well to heed.

We congratulate the efficient Committee of Arrangements, and our Auburn friends, generally, upon the brilliant success of their Barbecue and Mass Meeting. They will do their duty next Tuesday, as well as they did it on last Tuesday. Mark that!

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we MUST carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

"TRAMP, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching," means that the Radical carpet-baggers who were imported into Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, to vote at the election on the 13th, are on their way back to the States of their residence. This will reduce the Radical vote in Pennsylvania more than the whole majority reported for the State ticket of that faction.

THE Democrats of Indiana have gained 12,583 votes over the vote of 1866. The majority for Baker (Radical) is less than a thousand. Take out the Radical carpet-baggers, from Illinois and Michigan, who voted the Radical ticket in Indiana on the 13th, and, without any other change, the State would be Democratic by a handsome majority. These carpet-baggers will have their own knitting to attend to on the day of the Presidential election.

BE SURE.—Be sure that all nine of the names of the Republican Electoral candidates are on the ticket when you vote for Grant.—Standard.

Yes, and "be sure" to remember that one of those nine Electoral candidates is a negro —A. H. Galloway, of New Hanover.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED? If not, take one or two with you, and attend to it now—to-day!

LETTER OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON TO GEN. EWING.

The National Intelligencer, of the 26th. inst., contains an important letter from President Johnson to Gen. Thomas Ewing, jr., dated the 24th. inst., and written at the request of the latter. He gives a rapid review of the financial history of the country and the present alarming condition of its finances. He says that the Revolutionary war cost the people of the United States $75,000,000, which had been reduced to $45,000,000 when the war of 1812 commenced. That war brought up the national debt, in 1816, to $127,000,000. By wise management, that debt was paid off in twenty years, under Jackson's administration.

At the close of the Mexican war, in 1849, the debt incurred amounted to $64,000,000, and was about the same, when the war with the Southern States began in 1861. The entire cost of the government, for seventy-two years, from the 4th. of March, 1789, to the 30th. of June, 1861, had only been $1,700,000,000, whereas the expenses of the government from 1st. of July, 1861, to the 30th. of June, 1865, four years of civil war, were $3,300,000,000!

The President states that the public debt, at the close of the war, amounted to $2,600,000,000, but, in February, 1866, it exceeded $2,800,000,000. From the 1st. of July, 1865, to the 30th. of June, 1869, it is estimated that the cost of the government, for four years, in a time of peace, will have been $1,600,000,000,—an amount nearly as great as was expended from the foundation of the government for the first seventy-two years, to July, 1861.

After this summing up the President thus forcibly proceeds:

"In making this comparison, we should remember that during the long interval between 1789 and 1861 the Government was frequently required to make expenditures of an extraordinary character. Large sums were paid to Indians as annuities, and for the purchase of their lands, and expensive wars were waged against powerful tribes. Louisiana was acquired from France at a cost of fifteen millions of dollars; Florida, in consideration of five millions, was ceded to us by Spain; California became a part of our possessions on payment to Mexico of fifteen millions; while for ten millions our Government secured from Texas the territory of New Mexico. During these periods of our history we were also engaged in wars with Great Britain and Mexico—the first waged against one of the most powerful nations of the world, the other made additionally expensive by the prosecution of military operations in the enemy's territory.

The startling facts, thus concisely stated, suggest an inquiry as to the cause of this immense increase in the expenditures and indebtedness of the country. During the civil war the maintenance of the Federal Government was the one great purpose that animated our people, and that economy which should always characterize our financial operations was overlooked in the great effort of the nation to preserve its existence. Many abuses, which had their origin in the war, continued to exist long after it had been brought to a triumphant conclusion, and the people, having become accustomed to a lavish expenditure of the public money for an object so dear to them as the preservation of the integrity of their free institutions, have patiently tolerated taxation of the most oppressive character. Large sums of money continue to be extorted from them and squandered in useless and extravagant appropriations. Enormous expenditures are demanded for purposes, the accomplishment of which requires a large standing army, perversion of the Constitution, and subjugation of States to negro domination. With a military establishment, costing in time of peace not less than one hundred millions annually, and a debt, the interest upon which draws from the Treasury, each year, one hundred and fifty millions—making a total of two hundred and fifty millions of dollars for these two items of expenditure alone—retrenchment has become an absolute necessity, or bankruptcy must soon overtake us, and involve the country in its paralyzing and disastrous results. If, however, a wise economy be adopted, the taxes may soon be materially reduced, not merely for the benefit of a few, but in the interest of all. A revenue would yet remain sufficient for the administration of the Government, as well as for such a reduction of the public debt as would, in a few years, relieve the people from millions of interest now annually drawn from their resources.

The idea that the debt is to become permanent should be at all times discountenanced, as involving taxation too heavy to be borne, and payment of an amount in interest every sixteen years equal to the original sum. The gradual liquidation of the public debt would by degrees release the large capital invested in the securities of the Government, which, seeking remuneration in other sources of income, would add to the wealth of the nation, upon which it is now so great a drain. This immense debt, if permitted to become permanent and increasing, must eventually be gathered into the hands of the few, and enable them to exert a dangerous and controlling power in the affairs of the government.—The debtors would become the servants of the leaders—the creditors the masses of the people. It is now our boast that we have given freedom to three millions of slaves; it will then be our shame, that by their own toleration of usurpation and profligacy, forty millions of people have enslaved themselves, and exchanged slaveholders for new taskmasters in the shape of bond-holders and tax-gatherers. Hence the vital issue whether Congress and its arbitrary assumptions of authority shall supersede the supreme law of the land—whether in time of peace the country shall be controlled by a multitude of tax collectors and a standing army, the one almost as numerous as the other, and making the debt a permanent burden upon the productive industry of the people; or whether the Constitution, with each and all of its guaranties, shall be sacredly preserved; whether now, as in 1789 and 1816, provision shall be made for the payment of our obligations at as early a period as practicable, that the fruits of their labors may be enjoyed by our citizens, rather than used to build up and sustain a moneyed monopoly at home and abroad. The contest is not merely who shall occupy the principal offices in the people's gift, but whether the high behests of the Federal Constitution shall be observed and maintained, in order that our liberties may be preserved; the Union of the States restored, that our Federal system may be unimpaired; fraternal feeling re-established, that our national strength may be renewed; the expenditures diminished, that taxation may be lightened; and the public debt once more extinguished, that it may not injuriously affect the life and energy, the prosperity and morals of the nation.

Believing that for the redress of the great wrongs, and the correction of the many abuses under which the country is now laboring, we must look to the American people, and that in them is our hope, I am, very truly, your friend.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28, P. M.

Judge Chase holds Court in Charleston, South Carolina, next week.

Gov. Seymour speaks at Pittsburg, to-night.

Gen. Schofield allows the Clerks in his Department to go home to vote.

Dr. J. B. Littlewood, of Illinois, has been appointed Chief Clerk of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The President is announced as helpless, under the reconstruction acts, in restraining District Commanders from interfering with the Courts. The case comes up from Texas and involves a postponement, by Reynolds' order, of a settlement of an estate.

The Radical clerks here have held a meeting and resolved to arm and organize, for their own protection, while passing through Baltimore, on their way home to vote. [Badly scared!]

The national banking capital of Virginia is nine millions.

FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, Oct. 28, P. M.

The Radicals estimate their majority at five thousand.

[Per contra, special dispatches in the World, last evening, "estimate" a decided Democratic majority.—Sentinel.]

GENERAL BLAIR IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28, P. M.

Gen. Blair addressed an immense crowd at Tammany Hall, last night.

FROM ALABAMA.

MOBILE, Oct. 28, P. M.

The Mobile Register, this morning, contains a letter from John Forsythe, to the New York World, emphatically denouncing the Times for misquoting and garbling his words.—He proves that the Register never said, "The Democratic party is beaten," and quotes the context omitted by the Times.

The letter concludes: "The Mobile Register has not given up, for an instant, the momentous struggle for Constitutional liberty. It has never written, "We are beaten." It claims Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana as certain for the Democrats."

THE SHOOTING OF REPRESENTATIVE HINDS.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28, P. M.

A special from Little Rock Arkansas announces the arrival there of Representative Hinds' body, and its departure for New York.

Hinds and Brooks were shot by George A. Clark, Secretary of the Democratic Committee, in Monroe County, who had been drinking heavily and was bordering on delirium tremens. Clark is in custody.

Handsome Property for Sale.

WILL BE SOLD, on Tuesday, the 27th of October, 1868, at Auction, before the Court House in Tarboro', that very desirable residence lately owned by Jos. W Wimberly, Esq., situated about 4 miles from the town of Tarboro', and within five hundred yards of McNair's crossing on the Tarboro' Branch Railroad.

The Tract consists of

of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 20 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several Scuppernong Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Peach, Pear, and Apple Trees adjoining the residence.

The Dwelling, a modern-built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor, and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the country. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.

Possession given on 1st January, 1869.

Terms.—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.

On same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Fund.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizens, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under the repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and is sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a sing's centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the south, they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
